TELSTAR SOFTBALLERS WERE ECSTATIC after their lopsided victory over Livermore Falls last Wednesday. They were even more ecstatic after their 6-5 win over top-seeded Traip on Saturday.

Girls advance to finals; face Sacopee t'mow

Telstar's eighth-seeded girls' softball team is this year's giant-killer. Last Saturday the Rebels outlasted #1-ranked Traip Academy, 6-5, in a quarterfinal game played in Kittery. And yesterday they ended the season of #4-ranked Richmond, 13-7, in another away game. They will again go on the road to face Sacopee Valley for the Western Class C Championship tomorrow (Thursday).

Rebel bats boomed yesterday, as the girls got 16 hits. Seven of the starters on the team got two or more hits apiece. On the other hand, Telstar's field

Belanger, who went the distance, gave up only five hits, scattered throughout the game. She also helped her own cause with a bases-loaded double in the third, which put Telstar ahead 6-0.

"Our kids really hit the ball well," said Coach Jim Lumney.

"Richmond's a scrappy little club," he commented. "[But] it's hard to defend a continued on Page Three

West Paris voters defer action on 'secret' ballot

At a special town meeting on Tuesday evening West Paris voters decided to defer any decision on the adoption of the Australian ballot of electing town officers until the annual town meeting next March.

An initial motion to vote "yes" on the adoption of the Australian ballot method of election was amended to defer action until the March 1988 annual town meeting. Following extended discussion the amended motion was accepted 17-15. The next three articles were passed over as they related to the "ballot" issue: concerning officers to be elected, date of election and hours that the polls would be open.

Selectman Duane Abbott reported on solid waste disposal alternatives. The site the town has in North Paris is suitable for a transfer station, but for a demolition dump (stump dump) new guidelines impose regulations that are very similar to those for a landfill. Under the old regulations costs for developing the site were: transfer station $28,000, demolition dump $11,500. The new guidelines would result in costs as follows: transfer station $41,000, demolition dump $5,500.

The voters accepted a new floodplain management ordinance bringing the town into compliance with National Flood Insurance Act of 1968 as amended. Vernon Inman acted as moderator.

Inn condo project ready to start up

Bethel Inn officials hope to turn the writing construction crews loose this week to begin construction of the expanded golf course and adjacent condominium project.

Jon owner Dick Racer said he expected to receive the necessary permits from the state Department of Environmental Protection yesterday.

Speaking before the Bethel Rotary Club at the group's Tuesday morning meeting, Mr. Racer said the project has continued on Page Two

THE THRILL OF VICTORY; THE AGONY OF DEFEAT: Rebel baseballers mob pitcher Gary Williamson after the last long-ball out last Saturday, while a dejected Carabec baserunner can't bear to look.

Rebels vs. H-D for championship

Following victories over 7th-ranked Carabec Saturday (3-2), and 6th-ranked Falmouth yesterday (2-1), Telstar's 8th-ranked baseball team will face the top-ranked Hail-Dale team, in an away game, for the Western Class C Championship tomorrow. (Hail-Dale beat Livermore Falls, 2-1, in 10 innings in yesterday's semi-final match-up.)

The Rebels had to dig deep within themselves to stay one run ahead of a solid Falmouth team yesterday. Particularly in the bottom of the fifth inning, when starting pitcher Ken Viger dislocated his elbow sliding into second on a steal, some of the spark seemed to leave the team. Reliever Gary Williamson pitched himself into a bases-loaded jam in the top half of the sixth, and then pitched himself out of it.

Telstar couldn't get any insurance runs in the bottom of the sixth and dug in to hold tight to the slim lead as the seventh frame started. Williamson looked as if he would win the ballgame single-handedly, throwing out the first two batters at first. But then he let a man on base and it was continued on Page Three

Town Meeting wants local police - & bigger budget

Disregarding recommendations made by the Board of Selectmen and the Budget Committee, Bethel Town Meeting last night voted to spend additional money on police protection and voted to continue with a local police department. (The selectmen had recommended contracting with the Oxford County Sheriff's Department for one full-time and two part-time deputies to provide coverage in town.)

The town officials had recommended a budget of $45,289 for police protection in the coming fiscal year, beginning July 1. Instead, on a motion by Bob Saunders, voters—by a three-to-one majority—appropriated $69,000 for police protection. Mr. Saunders said, "I think this would offer a significantly improved level of protection for Bethel."

Mr. Saunders suggested allocating the $69,000 as follows: $55,000 for a chief (to replace Chief Bob Stearns, who retires this month), $17,000 for three part-time officers, $10,000 for operating the cruiser, and $17,000 for overhead on labor. He suggested this would yield 59 hours per week of patrol, versus the 75 hours currently provided, or the 60 hours projected with a contract with the sheriff's department.

Norman Clanton moved to eliminate the restrictive breakdown of the total allocation and simply have the motion read to raise and appropriate $69,000 for police protection. The amendment was approved, 85-66.

Arguments in favor of a higher-than-requested allocation for police protection frequently harkened back to the vandalism of last weekend (see separate story, page 18).

Speaking for the Board of Selectmen, Selectman Victor Coolidge said, "We're continued on Page Three

Classy classrooms in Woodstock

Over 200 Woodstock residents showed up last Friday night for a look at their new elementary school. Judging from comments overheard, they were very pleased with what they saw.

What they saw was a school that is both handsome and functional. The gym/auditorium/cafe/terrace has basketball backboards that move up or down, and tables and chairs that move into the walls. The hallway has attractive arches to break up what would otherwise be wasted space. The playground is so much fun, parents had difficulty getting their kids off the playground equipment and into the school. And throughout there are nice touches, such as the schoolhouse design that is carried over from interior windows to sketches on the wall.

Of course bricks and mortar do not make for a learning experience—good teachers and administrators do that. But first-class facilities never hurt.

When the fall term begins, Woodstock students will no longer be faced with having to hold classes in the basement or with not being able to use the second floor of the old Woodstock school. Gone will be the dash over to the gym on cold days, and the inability to hear students when they were performing on the stage of the gym. Gone will be carrying lunch trays around the school.

Unfortunately, the new school building is too small for the numbers of children that will soon be using it. That means temporary classrooms until additions can be made onto the new school.

This major problem notwithstanding, the $1.3 million school is a lovely addition to Woodstock and to SAD #44. May the staff and the students use it well and wisely.

THE MAIN HALLWAY at the new Woodstock School presents an attractive combination of function and inspiration. The doorway to the left leads to the gym/auditorium/cafe/terrace; the doorway to the right leads to the library; the doorway at the end of the hall leads to the playground and playing fields.

Agnes Gray School

By MARTA CLEMENTS

Mrs. Jeanne Edmunds, who has been substituting for Mrs. Brown in the kindergarten, continues to work with the Math Their Way program. The students have made patterned umbrellas and are working with their math tubs. Math tubs are used to learn the addition and subtraction number families. By mixing and matching a variety of objects children can actually see the different combinations. They are currently working on the different totals for the numbers 5 and 6.

For an art project the first grade has made stained glass pictures out of tissue paper. When taped to a window on a sunny day they are very pretty.

Grade 2 has had lots of excitement. Their eggs have begun to hatch. Two little chickens are out and three more are cracking through. The second-graders have been able to hear them chirping even before hatch. The model farms are progressing well and pumpkin seeds have been planted and will be taken home in June.

Mrs. Judy Bennett, from Stephens Memorial Hospital, visited Grade 6 this week. She gave a presentation on what goes on in the hospital laboratory. She showed a filmstrip and brought in specimens of brain, lung and different stones for the students to examine. Grade 6 is also in the middle of producing their yearbook. Lots of good memories!

Students in all grades are proudly wearing their school T-shirts and sweat-shirts. Grade 5 had Agnes Gray shirt day and almost everyone remembered to wear their special shirts. Even their teacher!

Mrs. Loper's 3rd Grade visited Mrs. Kish's 3rd Grade at the Perkins-Peaco School, in Oxford. This trip was a reciprocal visit to share their original creative writings. Pupils from West Paris who read in the sharing circle were: Jonathan Haas, The Haunted Gold Mine; Heather Edwards, Runaway Cowboys; Katie Walton, Fifteen Inches Under the Ocean; Austin Hayes, Mystery of the Missing Room; Liberty Woodworth, Moons from Outer Space; Jodi Gilpatrick, The Ghost of Mrs. Loper; and Jason Bradeen, The Floating Deck. Both classes were treated to a popsicle before the visit ended.

The last day of school for us is June 19—only three more weeks to get everything wrapped up.

Here's a summary of what lies ahead: June 10: All 4th, 5th and 6th-graders will be participating in the annual field day to be held at Hebron Academy. Sack races, three-legged races, track events, running broad jump, softball throw, frisbee throw, and tennis will give everyone a chance to compete. Bag lunches will add to a picnic atmosphere; upon return to school the winners in each event will be awarded ribbons. Rain date, Monday, June 15.

June 12: Step-up day for the 6th-graders. They will be spending the day at Oxford Hills Junior High for an orientation of what life will be like for them next year. Students will be bussed to the junior high and will return to West Paris at the end of the day. We will miss this class next year. The Agnes Gray School won't be the same without Todd Bouchard, Shawn Dexter, Jerry Billings, Justin Wormell, Andrew Merrill, E.J. Nye, Mike Lackey, Brian Stinson, Jon Edmunds, Donnie Ferris, Amy Small, Shelley Robinson, RJah Newell, Jenny Rukolainen, Heather Newton, Diana Poland, Amy Tikander, Stacey Smith, Wendy Lary and Laura Hall. We wish them lots of luck and we'll be watching for their future achievements.

June 17: The 5th Grade will be having a rollerskating/pizza party at Motion 26, in Oxford. This will take place in the afternoon and transportation will be by private cars. We hope to be back in time to catch the buses.

June 18: At 1:30, the annual school-wide awards ceremony will be held in the gymnasium. There will also be a music program, featuring the "Orchestra." This is a group of students, under the direction of Mr. Barker, who will be singing and accompanying themselves on a variety of instruments. This presentation is based on the work of the German musician Carl Orff. His "schulwerk" instruments are: xylophone, metallophone and glockenspiel. The students will be improvising some of their accompaniment. Andrea Pratt, Emily Kirchherr, Jara Glinski, Rebecca Blake, Danny McAllister and Christopher Coolidge will be singing "It's a Small World" and "He's Got the Whole World in His Hands." The 4th Grade will not be in the program, but they are having fun learning to play recorders.

June 19: The last day of school. It will be a full day. In the afternoon all students will gather 'round for the annual softball game between the teachers and the 6th-graders. The teachers have never been beaten, but this year's 6th Grade has many ball players, both girls and boys. It may be a challenge.

NEWS FLASH! My column was all written and sealed in the envelope when the most extraordinary thing happened this morning. A gorilla visited the Agnes Gray School. The gorilla was carrying a bunch of helium-filled balloons tied with gaily colored ribbons.

"It" came at recess and hunkered right up to the teachers' room. No one knew what was going on. The gorilla checked us all out, hugged us, and then let us read the card that was attached to the balloons.

Rosell Cummings, our custodian, sent the gorilla and balloons to brighten our day and to thank us for the moral support we've given him while he has been recovering from severe flood damage. It really did "make our day." It is a great feeling to know that we are appreciated. And, in turn, we appreciate the many services that Mr. Cummings does for us.

EBS/CPS Kids' World

By LAURIE BERGERON

Chapter I reading students recently took a stroll to the Bethel Library. Betsy Raymond, librarian, gave them an informative introduction to the library. Hopefully, their interest will continue and lead them to more visits during the summer.

The CPS resource room had a special visitor last week. Mathew Konkright's mom, Pam, took Nutmeggie, a Nubian/Toggenburg goat, to visit students. They learned about raising, feeding and milking goats, as well as the different kinds of goats around the world. After reading stories about goats, the students became authors and illustrators of their own imaginative goat tales!

On Wednesday, Althea and Keith Stevens took an Angora rabbit to the CPS resource room. Students learned how to spin yarn from rabbit fur, goat hair and sheep wool. They learned to card the wool and make rolaggs and even had the chance to use a spinning wheel.

Mrs. McCluskey's first grade visited the Maine Aquarium this week. They learned about different kinds of creatures in the Tidal Pool and their science program was benefited by this exciting trip.

Mrs. Chadbourne visited Mrs. Gould's first grade to tell about her trip to Russia. Students were shown some slides, a Russian newspaper, and a Pepsi bottle—with "Pepsi" written in Russian. Teri Chadbourne, a first grade student, demonstrated her carved nesting dolls.

Mrs. Corduan's fourth graders have been studying the marine creatures: mussels and barnacles. By rubbing crayon over paper-covered mussel shells they were able to distinguish their "age lines." They demonstrated how barnacles feed by waving their arms in the same manner that barnacles extend their feathery legs and sift the waves for plankton. Students have been authors of some great adventure stories!

Congratulations to recent graduates in Ms. Merrill's third grade math contest: Christopher Bowie, Erin Kallay, Katy Mullen, and Scott Tripp in Level III (sums 11-13), and to Lydia Grover and Nathan Moore in Level IV (sums 14-18).

Super congratulations to new math grand champion, Anneliese Bass, and super grand champion, Keith Chadburn. Anneliese and Keith did outstanding jobs in addition and subtraction timed tests.

Third graders at CPS, through the volunteerism of Dr. Stan Howe, director of the Moses Museum, have learned much about Bethel's history this year. Dr. Howe has greatly enriched the focus of the third grade social studies program—how communities start and why. Dr. Howe's presentations clearly showed how community resources can make the learning process more real and applicable to students. His stories, artifacts, and slides of Bethel's early times have made it possible for history to "come alive" for the third grade students who are grateful to Dr. Howe for giving them this interesting opportunity to learn.

Inn condo project

been delayed five weeks due to slowness on the part of the overworked DEP staff. Nevertheless, he said, he still expected to have the golf course completed, and seeded, this year, and ready for play next July. He expects to have the first of the 40 condominium units ready for occupancy by the end of the year or early next year.

The project first ran into trouble with getting the required permits when the DEP said the condos could not be hooked into the Bethel sewer system because of inadequacies in that system.

After that was cleared up by the town agreeing to make whatever improvements were called for in an independent study (to be funded by the Inn), the Bethel Planning Board refused to issue the required subdivision permit.

When lawyers—from the town, the Maine Municipal Association and the Inn—challenged the small number of votes on which the denial was based (the vote having been 2-2), a new vote was taken and the project was approved, 4-2.

Then the DEP acted again to stifle the project. Based on an opinion from the state Historical Preservation Commission, the DEP ruled that the planned access road—intersecting Broad Street—would have a damaging effect on the National Historic District. Inn officials then re-drew the plans to show access skirting around NTL and the Chadbourne residence. This was acceptable to the Planning Board and, apparently, to the DEP.

Mr. Raso said the construction of the new holes for the 18-hole championship course—a total of 11 holes will have to be constructed as some of the old holes will be taken over—will cost over $1 million. He said this cost will be funded by sales of the condominium units.

He added that the condos are being purchased as investments, rather than as second homes. He said they will be used as adjunct rooms for the Inn. He further said he did not envision any additional condos being built at the Inn, although he said some private houselets might be sold around the golf course.

Moose permits selected

Record numbers of resident and non-resident hunters competed in this year's public drawing for moose permits, held yesterday in Augusta.

About 33,000 Maine residents vied for the 900 resident permits, while over 14,000 non-residents competed for the 100 non-resident permits.

An attempt to increase the annual number of moose permits to 1,500 was rejected by the Maine Legislature.

Letters to the Editor

To the Editor:

Recently we had been approached about selling some property, namely the "Roadside Spring Property." The spring being on or under private property. The public has the right to the overflow within the state road limits. The state did fix cement embankments and road culvert or storm drain when the "new" road was put through cutting our property into two pieces. This was done some time when the place was owned by Mr. Floyd "Pro" Redman.

We are selling it. Which if we had not cared about other people we would have sold and said nothing, but in all fairness to all the people who use this spring we decided to give the town of Woodstock first option/refusal. Now we are getting a lot of flak.

So I'd like to say this is a nuisance, people that wash cars, dumping beer cans, bottles, plastic jugs, cigarette butts. All this debris comes down through the storm drain across our field. It plugs up the pipe we put in so the water could go directly into our ponds. Instead this overflow cuts out into our field.

At this point we'd like to thank the Chamber of Commerce for help in keeping it clean. (We had a gentleman's agreement with Mr. Wendell Twilchell at the time we did sell we'd let them know if ever we did anything about the spring.) Mrs. Francis Mills Woodstock presses—and more associated printing equipment—than ever before.

It seems the confusion about what we do here in our shop arose when we began printing the newspaper on the high-speed press of the Leviston Sun. Since then a number of people have expressed surprise when I mention that we are still heavily in the printing business. I recall Romeo Baker was looking to have something printed and thought he would have to go to Norway or South Paris to have it done. And, just the other day, George Gibson—who is studying printing at CMVTI—said he didn't know we still had presses here.

As a matter of fact, we're doing more printing than ever. Among larger jobs, we recently finished the Bethel town report. And a couple of months ago we did the annual financial report (similar to a town report) for Oxford County. But our bread-and-butter jobs are still jobs like letterheads, statements, printed envelopes, brochures, menus, invitations, flyers, etc.

Whenever I go into one of our local stores, such as Brooks, or Prim's, or Western Maine, or Brass Buckle, or Fran 'n' Shannan's or Maine Line Products, or Edelweiss I'm always struck by the assortment of products one can buy right in Bethel. The same is true for printing. You don't have to leave town for your printing needs.

Elsewhere on this page you'll find an ad showing the complete array of items that we print here. I hope that will clear up the confusion. Yes, we do printing. And, yes, we are constantly doing more and need additional help. (See our help-wanted ad on the classified page.)

team when everyone's hitting." In the Traip victory, the Telstar girls built up a 6-1 lead after three innings and then held on for the 6-5 win. Belanger kept her cool in the face of the late Traip charge and went the distance.

The girls are looking forward to meeting 2nd-ranked Sacopec—a team they beat 8-6, at home, during the regular season. Sacopec, which was last year's champ, got to the final as the result of an 8-6 win over Carrabec yesterday.

In the preliminary game, last Wednesday, Rebel batters jumped all over a well-balanced Livermore Falls team, building up 15 runs, while giving up just 6. A tiring Belanger was replaced by Mindy Robinson for the final innings.

Rebels vs. Hall-Dale

up to Rick Roy, in left field, to get under a long fly ball for the final out. Between Williamson and Viger, the team only gave up three hits to the visitors, but allowed a large number of Falmouth players on base via three errors and a number of walks. For the Rebels, their two runs came on six hits and with the assistance of one Falmouth error.

In Saturday's game, the Rebels, relying on the steady pitching of Williamson, struggled ahead of Carrabec, mainly on misuses by the Green Machine. Rebel bats were not as active as they normally are. Good defense by the Rebels preserved their slim lead, and the game was finally ended, with Carrabec runner on third, when left-fielder Ken Viger ran down a line drive that looked like a sure hit into left-center.

The Telstar boys had a bye in the preliminary round, played last Wednesday.

If the boys win the Western Class C Championship, they will play for the state championship on Saturday.

E. ANDOVER WOMAN JOINS HIGH-TECH HOME CARE TEAM

Kimberly Clement, R.N., recently completed a training course qualifying her to provide I.V. (intravenous) therapy to patients in a home setting. Ms. Clement, staff nurse at the Androscoggin Home Health Service, completed the rigorous training program under the direction of Wendy Webster, R.N., in-service coordinator for the Home Health Service.

Ms. Clement joins Janet Stowell, R.N., of Bethel, and Gayle Therrien, R.N., of Wilton, on the High-Tech Home Care Team, which is a specialized unit of the Rumford office of Androscoggin Home Health.

Examples of I.V.'s that can successfully be administered in the home include antibiotics, chemotherapy and fluid replacement, among others. All therapies are ordered and supervised by the patients' own physician.

Androscoggin Home Health of Northern Oxford County is a private, non-profit, United Way agency, located at 201 Knox St., Rumford. The agency has served the area with visiting nurses and many other health services for over 20 years. trying to buy the town the best police protection we can afford." He noted that an additional $24,000 put into the budget would increase the tax rate by about one mill—making the envisioned increase three mills instead of two mills. (The municipal budget will be over $800,000.)

But the voters were undeterred. "I can appreciate the fact that the selectmen have tried to be frugal," said Barbara Brown, "but it's time to address the problem—and we do have a problem."

Bill Williams, a lieutenant in the sheriff's department, said more local police are needed in order to cut down on the response time in case of an incident. "By increasing the amount to $69,000 you're going to be able to put more people on, which is what we need."

Most people agreed, and the motion to allocate that amount passed, 93-31.

Town Meeting next told the selectmen, by an overwhelming vote, that it would not authorize the board to contract with the sheriff's office for police protection. Voters wanted the police force to be based right in town. Dennis Doyon argued that a local force would mean quicker response during off-duty hours.

The selectmen had argued that with Chief Stearns retiring it would be impossible to find another chief to work the long hours he did, or to work for the same salary. Mike O'Donnell countered that town policy should not be dictated by the retirement of any one person, but on the needs of the town.

The next article to engender heated debate was Art. 16, in which the selectmen and Budget Committee differed on the amounts each suggested to set aside for replacing the oldest ambulance. The B.E.A.R.S. staunchly argued that they needed the replacement ambulance as soon as possible, rather than in 1990, as the Budget Committee had recommended. "That ambulance will be 15 years old by 1990," Arlene Greenleaf said. "How many of you (on the Budget Committee) are driving around in a vehicle that's 15 years old?" The committee had argued that with the ambulance service no longer covering Newry the ambulances should last longer. Voters overwhelmingly supported the B.E.A.R.S., which means the ambulance will be bought next year.

The Bethel Area Chamber of Commerce got into its annual tug-of-war with the town fathers over whether or not town taxes should help pay for the work done by the chamber. Fred McMillin moved that no money be appropriated for the chamber. (The article on the warrant had requested $750, but the selectmen and Budget Committee had both recommended no appropriation.)

Jim Hudson immediately moved the question to shut off debate. This motion, which needed a two-thirds majority, received only 39 votes, to 35 against. So the discussion went on. Cathy Newell

in annual Bethel voting

One hundred eleven Bethel voters, slightly more than six percent of those registered, cast their ballots in the annual municipal election held Monday at the fire station.

As there were no contests listed on the ballot, the voter turn out was significantly larger than had been anticipated by local officials.

Re-elected as selectmen for three years were Arlan Jodrey and Patricia C. Dooen, with 93 and 87 votes respectively. Receiving write-in votes were John Todd and Jack Brooks with three each, and Sumner Burgess and Robert Stevens, with one each.

Robert Stevens received 97 votes and Mrs. Dooen 87, as they were re-elected as assessors for three years. Mr. Jodrey received five write-in votes for the position and John Todd and Jack Brooks, one each.

Stanley R. Howe received 91 votes as he returns to the SAD #44 board of directors for a three year term after a one year absence, succeeding Al Barth who did not seek re-election. Incumbent school director John K. Brown received 100 votes as he was returned to the position for three more years. There was one write-in vote cast for Jolene Shimamura.

thereupon moved that $750 be appropriated for the chamber's activities.

Merton Brown said the chamber is heavily involved in promoting tourism, and the townspeople must decide if they really want more tourism. And Mr. McMillin said, "I don't think the $750 should be used to entice Massachusetts or Connecticut or New Jersey (people)." Mike O'Donnell countered that the chamber supports commerce of all sorts, including tourism, and that the increased commerce brought in by the chamber brings more money to the town than the $750 being asked for.

The vote on the amendment to allocate $750 seemed to fail, as a vote of 30-38 was announced. But Barbara Brown asked for a recount, which request Moderator Bill Cousins granted. On the recount, the vote was 41-34. The amended motion easily passed with similar support, 41-33.

The last bit of conflict involved the fact that the long-awaited site plan review ordinance was not ready for a vote and the article proposing it had to be postponed. Pat Hudson, who had chaired the subcommittee that drafted the ordinance, said, "It's unfortunate that they (the Planning Board) sat on it and didn't get it ready for tonight."

Planning Board Chairman John Gray said the draft should be ready for a special town meeting Aug. 25.

Dance theater to perform
'Cinderella' June 17-18

Twenty-seven years ago Children's Dance Theater of Bethel put on its first production, "Cinderella." Now, once again it will be presented at Telstar auditorium on June 17 and 18 with an all new cast, bigger and better than ever.

Children's Dance Theater, under the direction of Susan Clement Farrar, is much more than a dance studio, as anyone involved in it tell you. Over the years it has adapted most of the well known fairy tales as well as some of the classical ballets, such as "The Nutcracker" and "Copella," allowing young people to express themselves through song, dance and mime.

"Cinderella" is played by Kristen Powell, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Bruce Powell, of Hanover. The Stepmother will be played by Rebecca Hanscom; Anastasia, Meredith Otten; Drizella, Heather Roberts; Prince, Liz Mikenas-Smith; Bluebirds, Nikki Kreiton and Jennifer Fyrborg; Mice, Erin Dennis and Renee Royer.

"Cinderella" is a show full of fun and surprises, as when Emily Danforth, as the Fairy Godmother, turns the pumpkin into a beautiful coach.

It is on stage June 17-18, at the Telstar auditorium.

Spanish exchange
host family orientation

The Bethel Rotary Club has scheduled a host family orientation meeting for Tuesday, June 23 at 7 p.m. at the Telstar lecture hall for all hosting families, organizers, and interested parties. The purpose of the meeting is to prepare the hosting families for the two-week visit of 20 children from Mijas, Spain, and the five adult chaperones from July 11 through July 20.

The meeting will finalize activity meeting times, touch on key Spanish phrases and customs, outline the expectations of the hosts, and answer all the questions about this exciting educational opportunity. The sponsors hope to have all the kids matched up with families by this time. Host families unable to attend are asked to notify David Preble of the Bethel Rotary Club at Prim's Pharmacy at 824-2820.

The Bethel Rotary Club wishes to thank all those who participated in the Spanish Youth Exchange Bike-a-thon last Saturday. The funds raised will pay for expenses of this year's visit such as bus transportation, food, baseball game tickets, and other entertainment. The remaining money will be used for next year's planned trip of some SAD #44 students to Mijas, Spain, to complete the exchange.

SAD #44 adult ed graduates 21

The SAD #44 Adult and Community Education program held graduation ceremonies for 21 adults on Tuesday, June 2, at the Telstar Regional High School cafeteria.

The new graduates who received Telstar Regional High School diplomas, or GED diplomas, were addressed by State Representative Jeff Mills (D-Bethel), who commended the graduates on their determination to seek educational advancement in the face of job pressures and family responsibilities. He stressed the importance of state support for adult education opportunities, commending SAD #44 for its long-time commitment to adult education.

The graduates and the 200 family members and guests were also addressed by Superintendent of Schools Dewaine B. Craig and Adult and Community Education Director Cathy Newell. Rev. Lisa Vonderheide, of the Bethel United Methodist Church, offered the invocation and benediction.

Norman Marin, of Milton Plantation, was honored with a Special Achievement Award for his score on the GED examination. Marin received the second-highest score in the history of the Telstar GED Test Center and missed, by a hair, being one of the 10 highest GED scorers in the state this year. His wife, Nancy, also received her GED during the ceremonies.

Adult and Community Education staff members presented book awards to the graduates and briefly reminisced about each graduate. Ann Holt remarked about the intellectual curiosity shown in her U.S. history class by Norman Moore, of West Paris, who is also a student at N.H. Vocational College in Berlin, and on the perseverance demonstrated by Robert Taylor, of Glend, who was able to juggle heavy work demands in order to complete the English and History credits he needed for his graduation requirements.

Rodney Abbott commented on his good fortune at the Woodstock School Adult Learning Center to have Ken Koskela, and Norman and Nancy Marin in his GED preparation program. All three came into the program with high abilities and were able to move on to take their exams quickly. Abbott remarked that adult education is indeed a shared experience between student and teacher, as Norman Marin set him straight on some confusing areas of geometry.

Pat Morey, instructor in the Telstar Adult Learning Center, presented books to Bruce Abbott, Cynthia Scott, and Ken Daggett. Abbott and Scott were workers who were laid off during 1983 and returned to get their GEDs in order to pursue training for employment. Morey commented on their hard work, and said they were a delight to work with. Ken Daggett is a young man who attended class at the Telstar Center all year. Morey commented that his infectious good humor involved people throughout the school in his progress, and the passage of his final math test was a cause for general celebration.

Melanie Ellsworth taught at the Woodstock Center during the second semester and worked with Doreen Cox and Lynda Skinner. Both women have young families and have had to juggle busy schedules to finish. Lynda Skinner was also attending Central Maine Adult classes at NOVA, and graduated from that course this spring as well.

Louise Chapman taught the French class this year and presented books to Gert Friel, Rick Osgood, and Mike Merrifield. Mrs. Friel, whose graduation was witnessed by a very large number of family members, has been a distinguished student this year in English and History, and hopes to attend college classes in the fall. Rick Osgood, upon completing his graduation requirements in the winter, was able to enter a new career field: law enforcement. Osgood attended the Police Academy this spring, and did very well there, and serves as a member of the Bethel Police Department. He is also interested in possible service as literacy tutor. Mike Merrifield, of West Bethel, works in construction and attended classes in English and History this year. He attended high school in Peterborough, N.H., and worked at N.H. Ball Bearings, from 1980 to '83.

Merrill Bitter, guidance counselor for the SAD #44 adult education program, presented books to Pat Meader, of Albany, and Kelly Osgood, of Locke Mills. Pat Meader was able to juggle the demands of her family and farm to get her GED. Kelly Osgood demonstrated extra effort throughout the year.

Mrs. Newell explained that a number of 1986 graduates were not able to be present, including Kim Storch, Shane Remington, Andrew Koch, Reggie Westlength, and Norman Moore. In addition, three members of the Maine National Guard—Ron Chaholm, Tim Douglass and Michael Gray—who received their GEDs through the Telstar Center—live in other parts of the state.

The Adult Learning Center at Woodstock met for the last time on June 9, with both the Woodstock and Telstar centers to meet at Telstar on June 18. These will then be a vacation, with the summer learning center for individual work on basic skills of reading, writing and math, as well as GED preparation, to be held at Telstar on Wednesday evenings starting July 9 from 6:30-9:30. Anyone who would like to participate should call the Adult Education office at 824-2215.

Locke Mills

By LORRAINE MILLS

The Greenwood Fire Department will hold a training session Tuesday, June 16, at the fire station at 6:30 p.m.

The Ladies Circle will meet Tuesday (this month only), June 16, at 1:30 p.m. at Margery Swan's new home. The sale on July 17 will be discussed.

The Locke Mills Union Church honored their graduates on Sunday, June 7. Bibles were presented to those attending.

Ralph Mills, son of Mr. and Mrs. John Mills, went deep sea fishing off the coast of New Hampshire, Friday, May 29, and then came up through Conway to spend Friday evening and Saturday with his parents. They all visited Mr. and Mrs. Earl Colby, Carl and Brian, in West Greenwood Saturday and helped Carl celebrate his birthday with cake and ice cream. Ralph went from there back to his home in Colchester, Vt., Saturday evening.

The Locke Mills Union Church Youth Group spent Friday and Saturday at Rockcraft, Sebago Lake, on a Youth Retreat. The 10 members attending were Michael Crockett, David Wakefield, Todd Swan, Shane Svach, Beth Sawyer, Christina Wakefield, Michelle Crockett, Lee-Ann Partlen, Lisa Cox and Lisa Parum. They were chaperoned by Silver Lemmon and Ron Carey. Cindy Cox and Margery Swan helped with the transportation.

The Greenwood Fire Department met Tuesday at the fire station. They discussed a past fire, the care and condition of the fire trucks, and other related matters.

The Greenwood Historical Society met Wednesday evening with 20 members plus two guests. It was reported that about $20 was received from the donation Roger and Louise Twitchell gave to be raffled off at the door. The 1988 calendars are in the process of being made. Margaret Mills will host the craft fair committee at her home on June 8. There were three suggestions made for fundraising activities but due to the many summer activities already planned by other organizations it was decided to table the suggestions until a later date. Due to the mill vacation period the July meeting will be cancelled. The next meeting will be Aug. 5 with a pot luck picnic beginning at 6 p.m. at the meeting house. Refreshments were furnished this month by Louise Twitchell and Joyce Hathaway. Society members Robert and Virginia Keniston provided the entertainment by showing slides of their 1986 trip which were enjoyed by all.

Skirting was put around Margery and Harry Swan Jr.'s new trailer home last Friday.

Val and Caroline Greene of Massachusetts were here with a guest over the weekend. They did some trimming of grass around their house which made it look very nice.

Woodstock students help tornado victims

Students in the 2nd Grade at Woodstock Elementary School decided to raise funds to send to the needy children in Saragosa, Texas, which was devastated by a tornado last month.

The children collected $60 and would like to thank all those who donated to this cause.

of Falmouth Foreside visited Lee and Mary Mills on Memorial Day.

Margery and Harry Swan, Jr. and Todd, attended a birthday celebration Tuesday, June 2, for Debbie and Bruce Swan whose birthdays occur on June 2 and 4, respectively. Also present were their children, Stacy and Josh; Marlon Swan, Edith Rowe, Barbara and Ken Wakefield, and Rebecca and Doug Swan with parents, Jeff and Dorothy. I understand they had a very unique birthday cake with Bruce decorating half for Debbie and Vice versa, "Memories Are Made of This."

Lorraine Mills visited Marilyn Van Horn and boys in Mexico Thursday evening while John Mills and Lyle Van Horn attended a board meeting and a meeting of the Pioneer and Trail Blazer divisions of the Royal Rangers at the church.

The new post office boxes have been installed and look very nice—now if we can only remember our keys—!

Congratulations to Lee-Ann Coolidge on her graduation and new job (and to all the other graduates I haven't heard about). We miss you, Lee-Ann, at the store.

My apologies for not having any news in last week. At the time I should have been writing some I was having difficulty seeing due to an incident that seems as if it could only happen to me. Being born with straight hair I think it necessary to give myself a perm occasionally. I do not usually, however, pour waving solution over the first application of neutralizer instead of using second application of same. I erupted like Mt. Vesuvius, spilling stinging liquid into my eyes. Since I promptly rinsed them well I might have been spared a lot of pain and anguish if I had not decided that future rinsing could be done just as well by bathing my eyes in a cup of water. So I got a cup of water and retired to the living room setting my cup down next to my chair. Only not being to see too well through the haze that had not quite cleared from my eyes, when I picked up the cup to rinse them, I inadvertently picked up a cup of unfinished Alka-Seltzer that was also on the stand. That product may do very well for the use it was intended. It is not recommended by me as an eye wash. I was up most of the night due to the pain in my eyes and it took the better part of the next day before they stopped bothering. A person prone to stupid things happening as I am has no business being a sloppy housekeeper and I fully intend to get more organized—tomorrow.

Rotary Club notes

The regular breakfast meeting of the Bethel Rotary club was held on June 9 at Martha's Restaurant.

Visiting Rotarians and guests joining with the group Bill Lowther, Bonton, N.J.; David Paine, Oxford Hills; Ira Pitcher, Lewiston/Auburn; and Dick Rasor, guest speaker.

Bruce Powell was out among us at the meeting hustling raffle tickets. The winner was Jim Yarnell.

Rotary information was furnished by John Todd. His subject matter was thought-provoking and concerned Mollycodd Day activities.

President Dave had a few announcements to make to the members present regarding the Graduation Breakfast at Gould Academy on June 13. A bike-a-thon report was made at this time. Some additional information on the Spanish student exchange program was presented at this meeting.

The program chairman was Bill Conary. His guest speaker was Dick Rasor, owner of the Bethel Inn. Dick talked about the plans for expansion/development of the Bethel Inn. Dick commented about the transition of Bethel, just in the short period between 1979 and today, from a quiet little place to a thriving community. Dick provided much detail about building the new courses, the condominium development, which makes available new guest rooms for the Inn. The target date for completion of the course is July 1988. Under the guidance and management of Dick, Ray Moran, Gretchen, and others, the Inn is now a successful and needed local business.

As a closing thought it is sure nice to have our summer visitors back with us again. Welcome back Bill, Charlie, Gil—and you too, Ed.

Sunday evening: Graduation banquet, 6 p.m. Followed with the Baccalaureate service at 7 p.m. Each graduate received a gift of a Bible.

June 13, 7:30 a.m. Men's breakfast at Calvary Congregational Church. All of our sisters are invited too!

June 14, Bob Philbrick serving in Argentina with Gospel Missionary Union. "It is a fact. We take the Bible out of the schools and put them into prisons. It seems like a crime has to be committed before one is permitted to read the Bible."

"The Bible that is falling apart usually belongs to someone who is not."

TELSTAR THIRD-BASEMAN JEANNINE CONANT goes high for an errant throw, but is unable to snag the ball, or the Livermore Falls runner arriving safely at third. The Rebels won nevertheless, 13-6.

GARY WILLIAMSON, who pitched Telstar past Carrabec last Saturday, 3-2, takes a swing (and a miss) during one of his at-bats.

Telstar girls perform well at Orono Saturday

The Telstar Regional High School girls' track team went to the state class C meet in Orono last Saturday. Although no medals were brought home, the girls performed beautifully.

Amy Blake finished seventh in the 300 meter hurdles with a time of 51.8 seconds. Traci Higgins finished seventh in the long jump with a jump of 14'7 1/2", and she finished eighth in the triple jump. Shannan Tyler took a seventh place in the high jump with a leap of 4'8" which was her personal best.

The 1600 meter relay team of Sherri Nichols, Christine Hunt, Traci Higgins and Ellen Hastings ran a fantastic race setting a new school record with a new time of 4:38.

The 400 meter relay team of Deb Bodwell, Sarah Chapman, Paula Michaud and Ellen Hastings turned in a good performance with their best time of the season.

April Cole ran well in the 3200 meters coming in just seconds short of her record time last week.

NO PLACE TO GO: Rick Roy was forced at home during action in last Saturday's game against Carrabec. With the ball already in the catcher's mit, there was nothing to do but bite the bullet, which Ricky did. Nevertheless, the Rebels prevailed, 3-2.

Two Telstar coaches among 11 in Maine to receive 'win' awards

Telstar teachers Bob Remington and John Applin were among 11 Maine coaches honored by Franklin Life Insurance Co. of Springfield, Ill. for their career wins as coaches.

Mr. Remington received a gold award for his winning record as a ski coach, while Mr. Applin received a bronze award for his winning record as the cross-country coach. To qualify for a gold or silver award, a coach has to have a minimum of 100 victories; to qualify for a bronze in cross-country, a coach has to have a minimum of 50 victories.

The competition to select the winners was nationwide and was set up by "Scholastic Coach" magazine, and the names of the 3,571 winning coaches in the country will be published in that magazine this month.

Kersey wins pole vault at state 'C' meet

Telstar's David Kersey brought home the gold by placing first in the pole vault at the boys' state track meet in class C at Orono last Saturday. David achieved what no other no other male Telstar trackster has been able to do in the history of Telstar track—win a state meet! Not only did he perform well in the pole vault, 11'6", but also placed seventh in both the high and intermediate hurdles and setting two more school records which he held previously in those events.

Scott Haines had an outstanding day! He placed second in the long jump, fourth in the 100 meters, and fifth in the 200 meters. His leap of 20'3" in the long jump was a mere inch and a quarter short of the school record.

Both David and Scott went out of the high competition at 5:10. Based on the performances of these two fine athletes, the Ramon Rebels tied for seventh in state 'C' competition and outscored 20 teams.

Telstar N.H.S. announces 'students-of-month'

As the end of the year approaches, the National Honor Society at Telstar Regional High School is presenting its last "Student of the Month" awards for the combined months of March through May. The society would like to thank all the teachers who participated, and also Charlie's Place for giving a free pizza to the students.

Seniors of the month are Linda Learned, daughter of Phil and Mary Learned, of Andover, and Keith Clanton, son of Norman and Sylvia Clanton, of Bethel. Linda was nominated by her A.P. English teacher, Mrs. Taylor, for completing "the best paper of her career!" Keith was nominated for "excellence in the pursuit of science" by Mr. Kersey, his Chemistry teacher.

April Cole and Denise Gauthier are the juniors of the month. They are the daughters of Arthur and Amy Cole, of Andover, and Arthur and Jacqueline Gauthier, of Bethel, respectively. April's French III teacher, Mr. Taylor, nominated her for doing "the best possible work she can." Mrs. Taylor, Denise's English teacher, nominated Denise "for the commitment to her own learning. She is a real scholar."

Jenny Hutchins, daughter of Raymond and Janet Hutchins, of Andover, and Shane York, son of Clayton and Lorraine York, of Bethel, are the sophomores of the month. Mr. Roy, Biology, compliments Shane because his "average grade has risen 14 points since the first quarter." Jenny was nominated by Mr. Taylor, French II, because "it seems she has developed a really positive attitude lately."

The freshmen of the month are Angela Walker, daughter of Douglass and Jane Walker, of Bethel, and Kirke Haskell, son of Edmund and Carol Haskell, of Bryant Pond. Kirke was nominated by his Spanish I teacher, Mr. Otero-Otero, because "his depth of understanding Spanish is above average." Mr. Taylor nominated Angela in German I because "she has done remarkably well, especially in her oral work."

Special recognition goes to the following:

Seniors: Glori Bello-A.P. History; Karen Gould-French IV; Traci Higgins-A.P. History; Kevin Powell-Chemistry. Juniors: Brian Hughes-General Chemistry; Christine Hunt-Algebra 2; Lori Milton-Income Tax; Karen Morton-Chemistry; Andy Porter-20s and 30s; Dennis Swan-Imperialism and WW II; Delwin Wilson-Chemistry, World War II.

Sophomores: Marc Brown-English; Chris Buckingham-Physical Education; Sarah Goss-World Studies II; Rebecca Hutchins-Algebra II; Patti Jaros-Spanish II; Rob LaBarbera-Record Keeping; Stephen McLain-Latin II.

Gilead

By LOUISE LORING

A tropical heat wave—when we got all that warm weather pushing up from the Carolinas—I loved it. The plastic screens came off the porch and I could see out doors again. The old robin loved it too. He sat out by my bedroom window at 4 a.m. every morning and turned up his vocal chords to full volume. In the afternoons, he'd come out front of the house and continue to peal out loud and clear, even when he donned his little polka dot bikini and took a dip in the bird bath. Goldfinches twittered about, and a big yellow butterfly kept close tabs on me everytime I ventured out, making his circles about my head and once trying to zero in on my arm, which I guess he figured was a vast expanse of white landing strip. Cookouts were no fun however, even with the buglight on. Every species of insect in the county hatched out, and talk about D-Day—we were attacked, the food was attacked, and they even tried to light on the lava rocks. Needless to say, we retreated to the porch, smelling of Avon Skin so soft. Who said God would give us a rose garden? Today, we have a reprieve, skies are overcast, and it is trying to rain. However, I hear the robin out back, and I'm sure when Mr. Sun rolls out of bed, many pleasant surprises will be in store for us, as we roll full speed ahead into the days that are so "rare" in June. Graduations, wedding bells, and field strawberries. We've waited all winter for this!!

Enjoy and Peace!

Marion Kimball spent the weekend in Livermore with a friend, and together they traveled to Portland, where they visited with Annie Olson, who is in a hospital there.

My grandchildren, Joshua and Libby Foster, of Norway, spent the weekend here with both of us.

Kathy Sweetser is working at the diner here in town, part-time.

Florian Corriveau, of Auburn, has been spending some time here in town visiting friends and relatives.

By OLIVE DAVIS

Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Young have arrived at their cottage from New Jersey for a two-month stay.

Sunday I went to Bridgton to see my sister, Lillian Harmon, who is in the hospital. She didn't break any bones in her fall but she has stomach trouble they are trying to correct, so she wasn't able to come home yet.

Mr. and Mrs. Carl Brooks and Olive Davis attended the Franklin Grange memorial program Monday night, also Berthe Benoit. Tuesday night they were at Waterford Grange attending Oxford Pomona.

Several attended open house at Tri-Town's new building on Route 26, West Paris, Sunday, May 31.

We had a very hot week until Tuesday (June 2) when it cooled off all at once in the early afternoon. You really can't believe that the weather could change so much in the matter of hours.

Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Cole hosted a gathering of their Old Car Buys at their home here last Sunday evening. Video tapes of their recent excursions were shown, followed by a social hour.

State road crews have been out in full force, patching roads and repairing them, still trying to catch up on the havoc caused by the spring flood.

Flash!! Our peas are up, and Mrs. Chuck is back. If you hear a volley of shots—have no fear. There isn't a feud going on between the Halfpinks and McCays—it's just us trying to do her in before she wipes us out!

Until next week—God Bless!

Mr. and Mrs. Jimmy Kimball were in Harrison Monday for his medical check-up. Christine, with daughter Alberta, were in Portland another day this week to finalize reservations etc. for their upcoming trip to the midwest. Jimmie and Christine also visited with Mrs. Lillian Herrick Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. Dave Preble, of Newburyport, spent last weekend at their cottage here.

Mr. and Mrs. John Kallis returned this week from a month-long trip to the midwest. John was a delegate to the Christian Missionary Alliance Council, which was observing their 100th anniversary in St. Paul, Minn. On their way home they visited with Dr. and Mrs. Robert Ribbe, in Grand Rapids, Mich., at their camp on Bear Lake and also visited with Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Riggs, in Watertown, N.Y.

Mrs. Elmina Doyen and Mrs. Connie Hindman were in Lewiston Friday evening.

Mrs. David Salway attended a meeting at The Senator Inn, in Augusta, Friday. She was one of 14 representatives from various state colleges meeting with the coordinator of the National Teacher Examination of the Educational Testing Services. I went with her and spent the day with Mr. and Mrs. James Wike, in Gardiner.

How things have bloomed out and turned to the many shades of green in the last days of wet and warm weather. Nearly everyone has their gardens in and with a feeling of satisfaction watching them start to grow.

By GLADYS KILGORE

Mr. and Mrs. Earl Files, of Portland, visited his sister, Brenda, Memorial Day. Mrs. Helen Grover fell at her home Friday night and dislocated her shoulder. She is staying with her daughter, Joyce, in Norway for a few days.

Mrs. Geneva Tripp took me to Harrison Friday to see my doctor. Brenda Files and Becky Hatstat are working at Papoose Pond for the summer.

Francis Vail, our storekeeper, is in the hospital for treatment. We all hope he gets back soon.

Tuesday evening, June 9, the annual church meeting was held at the church. My sister has sold her place in North Waterford and is now staying with her daughter and husband at North Waterford.

Having so much rain, everything looks nice and green. My birds are leaving me, but I have a few stray cats around that I look after. Mrs. Frances Grant is quite busy making butter for people as far off as Westbrook and New Hampshire.

Juanita Past Chiefs Club met Monday, June 1, at noon at the lakeside cottage of Violet Doughty, with nine members present.

A delicious meal was enjoyed and all enjoyed the birthday cake presented to Elizabeth Stearns by her secret pal, Inez Barker, and the ice cream served by the hostess. Elizabeth also received a birthday gift from Inez.

The business meeting followed with President Phyllis Millett presiding.

It was reported that the sum of $316.25 was collected on the drive for the Cancer Fund and that this service has been active from this for 25 years.

A tribute in memoriam—given at the committee service for our senior member, Leona (McKen) Barker, was read.

Phyllis Millett and others spoke of the upcoming events for state projects of the organization. Phyllis announced a food sale at Shop and Save store June 26. Cards were signed to be sent to officers and members who are ill, also to local persons. We missed having Arlene Merrill with us, the hostess prize went to Inez Barker, door prize to Mildred Safford and sent to Sarah Grover. Club will recess until Sept. 1, and meet with Eloise Vail.

Special thanks to Mary Lyon who drove the World War I car at Locke Mills and Bryant Pond.

July 4, there will be a flag burning ceremony at 10 a.m. with refreshments after.

On Aug. 31, the post and unit will have their annual picnic at the hall.

Sept. 3 is the next regular meeting, at 7 p.m.

JACKSON-SILVER POST

Jackson-Silver Post #68 held its last meeting until September on June 4.

Delegates to the state convention in Augusta on June 19, 20 and 21 are Herb Lyon, commander; Charles Mason, adjutant; and Brian Strickland, finance officer; with Danny Davis, first vice commander, as alternate.

Plans for the summer include a flag-burning ceremony on July 4. A paint crew volunteered to paint the trim on the Post building. Donations were approved for the Memorial Day speaker and for Project Graduation at Telstar Regional High School.

A survey of 11 cemeteries the Post covers will be done by Warren Smith, chairman, assisted by Post and SAL members.

A gate will be erected at the entrance to the Post yard.

Aug. 30 was approved for the annual Post cookout to which all members and families are invited.

Navy Petty Officer 2nd Class Bruce Richards, son of Jeanette Coolidge, of Locke Mills, recently reported for duty with Naval Mobile Construction Battalion-62, Gulfport, Miss.

JACKSON-SILVER UNIT MEETS

Jackson-Silver Unit #68, American Legion Auxiliary, Locke Mills, held their regular meeting Thursday night with President Leah Deegan presiding.

Prayer opened the meeting, and music was enjoyed, with Mary Lyon at the piano.

The 69th annual State Convention is June 19-20 in Augusta. Delegates are Vera Cross, Trina Halacy, Mary Lyon, President Leah Deegan, and Fannie Cummings, delegate-at-large.

Mary Lyon, first vice president, represented the auxiliary and attended the meeting at Telstar on "Illiteracy in the State." She reported that 20 percent of Mainers are socially illiterate. Volunteers are needed to help these people.

The ladies voted $25 to help a flood victim. They also decided to buy a popcorn machine and share it with the Sons of the American Legion.

The unit and post wish to thank all those who participated in the Memorial Day ceremonies. The SAL marched for the first time—carrying their new flags.

David Broberg's new house on the Trask Road is progressing well. We ride over every few days to check on it. It is in a beautiful spot.

Mr. and Mrs. Harlan Abbott went to Gorham, N.H., Sunday to the graduation of Harlan's niece, Alice Ames.

Joe Vatcher carried Roberta Hsley to Maine Medical Center Tuesday to visit her husband, Nathan. Her grandson, Jan, and her cousin, Maggie, also went. Friday morning Joe went again to bring Nathan home after being a patient since May 7. He is much better but will have to go to Norway hospital for therapy.

Sympathy is extended to the families of Mrs. Hattie Martin in her recent passing.

The Community Club held their monthly meeting at the hall June 3. Secretary's and treasurer's reports were read and accepted as read. A thank-you note from Mr. and Mrs. Theodore Brett was also read.

It was reported that the stain for the building has been donated and work will start very soon if it dries out a bit and one side of the roof will be shingled. It was voted not to have a supper in June as there are lots of graduations and alumni banquets and weddings so the next supper will be July 25, 5 p.m. The regular menu and strawberry shortcake, with real whipped cream. Let's all go. Joe Vatcher and his crew will go to Steam's Hill for the berries and they are nice berries. Joe Kalinowski will be here at "Big Rock" so he can help Doris and Beryl solicit. See you there.

Doris Lawrence and Arnold Coffin visited Mrs. Barbara Felt, their niece, on their way to the several cemeteries with bouquets.

Mr. and Mrs. "Root" Lawrence and Mr. and Mrs. Norman Abbott attended the wedding reception May 30 for Mr. and Mrs. Mark Thayer (nee Sherry Millett) at the South Paris fire station. Eveline was unable to attend.

Callers at Lawrence's: Jimbo Coffin, Joe Vatcher, Mr. and Mrs. Norman Abbott, Joe Kalinowski, Richard Felt, and Polly Lawrence.

Quite a change in temperature from last weekend. No wonder people get colds.

Mr. and Mrs. Joe Vatcher went to see Joe's mother at the nursing home in Danvers, Mass., and Joe attended the Shriners banquet at the Aleppo building in Wilmington, Mass., June 6. Eveline had good reading and ball game on radio. Air conditioned cab helps to make outings enjoyable.

SENIOR CITIZEN MENUS

Monday, June 15: Pork choplet, potatoes, peas, bread, cottage pudding.
Tuesday, June 16: Cream chicken on puff pastry, broccoli, squash, cran-applesauce.
Thursday, June 18: New England boiled dinner, roll, cookie.

JAMIE GROVER AND KATE NICKERSON pose in antique children's dresses, along with an antique teddy bear and antique doll. The youngsters are getting ready for the period fashion show coming up Aug. 8, at the Hammons House, in conjunction with the Bethel Historical Society's Sudbury Canada Days. Anyone having antique clothes that they'd be willing to loan for the fashion show should contact either Ruth Grover, 824-2989, or Sally Rollinson, 824-3170.

Post 24 game schedule

Coach Charlie Newell this week announced the schedule for Post 24's American Legion baseball season. June games will start at 6 p.m., while July games will start at 5:45 p.m. Saturday double-headers start at 1 p.m.

Volunteers needed for Girl Scout council

Diane Milligan, service unit manager of the Telstar Association of Kennebec Girl Scout Council, has openings for many new volunteers to serve the Girl Scouts in the Telstar area. Needed are troop organizers and consultants for Andover, Canton, Peru and Rumford.

Also, almost all towns in the area are in need of troop leaders and assistant leaders for girls of all ages from the kindergarten Daisies up to and including girls in high school in Cadette and Senior troops.

The Telstar area consists of the towns of Albany, Andover, Bethel, Bryant Pond, Canton, Carthage, Dixfield, Gilead, Hanover, Magalloway Pk., Mexico, Newry, Peru, Lincoln Pk., Locke Mills, Milton, Riley, Roxbury, Rumford and Upton.

Anyone who wishes to help in any of the above areas should call Mrs. Robert Milligan, at 364-2345.

Training is available, so a person does not necessarily have to have a background in Girl Scouting or have their own girl enrolled in the Girl Scouts. Men and women of all ages are welcome. In fact, several troops in this council area are now led by husbands and wives jointly.

The Telstar Association Service Team of Kennebec Girl Scout Council met June 3 at the home of Service Team Manager Diane Milligan, at Rumford Point. Other members present were Joyce Knight, field executive from Kennebec Council; Cindy Blake, Bethel; Linda Couture, Rumford Point; Bernice Easter, Mexico; Constance Bragdon, Peru; and Geraldine Donahue, West Peru.

The Service Team approved the following trips for local scouts: Troop 155, Bethel, to attend the Telstar Service Unit Camporee; Troop 569, Bethel, to attend the Camporee.

Another cloudy morning but it is showering some this morning instead of just being cloudy. I think the sun must have gotten lost lately, no more than we have seen it. I could wish for less humid weather to help the aches and pains and have an idea some others might feel the same way.

We have been busy all we could for the past week. A week ago today, I had Peggy drive me to town to see the doctor for a check up of sorts. When I got into the car, after seeing the doctor, my right knee let go for a minute and I wondered what had happened. It swelled and hurt a lot but was able to move it by working it a little. When I went to see the doctor on Friday, he said he thought that I had had a piece of calcium deposit let loose but the body would absorb it and guess it did as I haven't had any more trouble than usual with it since the incident.

Wynona was up on Friday to take me to see the doctor and he also saw Karlann. She had fallen out of bed the week before and hurt her hand and was complaining that her back hurt. He helped her so she is feeling some better but said she would need another treatment. I can assure you, he helped her with a few treatments a year or so ago so she could do things she couldn't before he ever treated her. Her gross motor skills weren't what they should have been because of trouble in her back and he helped her to develop them quite rapidly. I was amazed but very pleased.

Russell and Peggy had gone for blood tests in the morning and in the evening, we got all dressed up and went to Auburn to see Courtney in her dance recital. The little ones were especially cute and Courtney was one of the first to be on stage as a little cat with her other friends. They did their kitty song and dance very well for small folks. It is quite a shock to think you will see your mother and father in the audience and then to come on stage and have the room dark; the small girls looked scared and can't say I blame them. However, they did a good job with their dance and others did, also. We didn't stay to see all of it but did stay for an hour or so. I counted all the names on the list of dancers and there were 138 or 139 names listed. This was the 50th year for Mrs. DesJardins' dance recitals. That is quite an honor, and she expects to teach them again next year. Of course, she has helped, but she is the head of it all and is real good with the little folks.

Saturday was such a hot day that we didn't do much that wasn't absolutely necessary. It was 90 degrees in the sun and stayed at 87 in the shade for some time. The humidity was so high that it just wasn't a good day for us to do much.

They say that the better the day the better the deed, so on Sunday I did a little cleaning in my bedroom. Had started lunch when Peggy came down and said that Bryce and Barbara Yates were at Lawrence's so had asked them to lunch. I waited a little and told Russell that I thought we should invite Lawrence and Grace to join us, too. I called and they accepted the invitation so we all had lunch or dinner together and a nice afternoon of visiting. Russell says that Bryce and Lawrence talk a different language than he does. He doesn't know much about tractors etc. and they do. Guess he took a little nap while they were talking but we all enjoyed the company.

Monday was a day for doing odd jobs around the place. I did a little more cleaning and Russell mowed the lawn, worked in the garden some and a wash in the morning. In the evening, Russell, Peggy and I went to Franklin Grange. It was in Florida again. Not many to choose from any more.

Tuesday, I needed to go to town to do an errand and Peggy needed some things as well as Russell, so away we went and did a little shopping around to get what we needed. That took up most of the forenoon and we all had odd jobs to do in the afternoon. Since Peggy has been home, we have played trionomes in the evening a lot. She and Russell have let me win a couple of times, but they seem to win more than I do. However, it is fun to play the game, win or lose.

We were up bright and early yesterday morning as Peggy and Russell had appointments in Lewiston at the eye doctor's at 8:15. I decided to stay home as I hadn't slept good the night before. Didn't do much in the forenoon but made a zucchini casserole for lunch. Didn't know if they would get home for lunch so had just finished eating my lunch when they drove in. It was all hot and ready for them when they got here, anyway. I did more cleaning in the afternoon. Started my spring house-cleaning rather late but hope to get it done eventually.

While working down in the far end of the home, in my bedroom, I heard a voice ask if anyone was home and came out to find Verna Swan, of Bryant Pond, had stopped in. We are always so glad to have her stop in. She has been a best friend of the family since before I was born. Had a nice visit with her and it gave me a short rest from my tedious job. It is good to look up back at the garden and see that the seeds we planted are coming up good. We just hope the bugs and insects won't be as bad as they were last year. The leaf miners got a lot of the stuff and Russell said he never had so much trouble with insects that he didn't even know existed. New ones crop up each year to plague the folks who want to raise gardens. It makes it hard when the dust and bug killer you have used in the past no longer works. Keeps one guessing what to do.

Whenever we go riding, I have to look all around me at the scenery to see if I can spot something new along the way. I miss my walks in the woods to find the flowers that grow there in the spring. However, we have had something this year that hasn't happened before since we moved here. There is a black cherry tree out back that has been in full bloom, and I mean full. It has never blossomed before since we moved here and, to be honest, even though it is so pretty I wish it refrained from blossoming this year as Margaret Mitchell has returned from a week with her sister, Tillie Grundy, of Sebago.

The Solly Gays have come to camp for the first time since Glenn's operation. Mike Levitt's Hereford bull went for a walk and was discovered in Errol about eight miles from home. Bob Jenkins drove the tractor to retrieve and walk him home behind the tractor. En route, they met a bull moose but neither animal created a problem.

Ownership of the three-cornered piece has been discussed again. If the roads are widened once more it will knock the whole question into oblivion. When I was a teenager one of my goals was to have a three-cornered shaped restaurant on that spot. I designed a very nice one when the land area was perhaps twice as much as now.

The Hydro-Quebec Group, which in conjunction with CMP wishes to put power lines through this area including Lincoln Plantation, Magalloway, Upton, Andover, contacted the selectmen recently.

A No Thank Q-Quebec-Hydro organization has been formed in Franklin County. More information may be obtained by writing P.O. Box 180, Dryden, Maine 04225, or calling 645-2321.

Bill LD 729 "An Act Establishing the Maine-Canada Energy Cooperation Act" had a hearing May 11. Senators Edgar Erwin and Chas. Webster are on the Utilities Commission studying corridors. Proposal is for a 250-460 KVDC line on towers 140 feet high.

This is vital for all citizens concerned for the beauty, the cost of their electricity, probable wildlife damage from a constant shrill whine and certain panorama damage. It certainly would make a terrific impact on this area of northern Oxford County and, pro or con, it behooves us to become informed.

It has affected my allergies. Woe is me and anyone else who has problems in that department. It is no fun to find it hard to breathe or keep sneezing and having runny noses or lose one's voice. It affects folks differently and not one of the affects is a pleasure. All we can do is hang in there and hope the days will get better. On that note, I will close and wish everyone a nice week ahead.

Tri-Town Rescue

Seven of Tri-Town Search and Rescue members attended a state-wide seminar on Saturday, June 6, at the Penobscot Conservation Association Clubhouse in Brewer. This seminar was under the direction of Gary Anderson, safety officer for the Maine Department of Inland Fisheries and Wildlife, who is also the coordinator of Search and Rescue. The are now 32 SAR teams in the state who are trained and ready to assist the warden service with any lost person search.

Tri-Town Search and Rescue team has changed their meeting night to the second Thursday of each month, beginning in July. They meet at the Trap Corner Barn, and are always glad of new members. If you're interested helping in this way, who not give Team Leader Ken Bacon a call at 574-2870. He'll fill you in on the requirements and details.

The open house at the new barn was well attended with over 175 people stopping by to check out our new facilities. The auxiliary is still trying to catch their breath from all the work of organizing the open house, then selling ice cream at the Woodstock school celebration, but now must make plans for the West Paris Alumni Supper, which is Saturday, June 12. This will be the third year that we have catered this supper.

On June 10, Warren Emery, chairman of the building committee, will be attending the Vocational Region 11 Awards Night where he will present a gift to each of the boys who worked on our building. We really appreciate the contribution that they made to our building.

In closing, I'd like to congratulate the Class of '87, and to remind them not to drink and drive. Celebrate, don't mutilate!

NOTICE

Local youths helping Mother Nature with beautification projects

Youths all over Oxford County have been busy planting trees, picking up litter and concerning themselves with soil and water conservation in recent weeks. The activities were organized by Jim Chandler, education coordinator of the Oxford County Soil and Water Conservation District, with the help of teachers and youth group leaders around the county.

Specific activities, involving over 300 persons, included: roadside beautification by the Boy Scouts of Bethel, the Brownies of Woodstock, Canton 4-H, and OXYNET (youth of the Oxford County Association of the United Church of Christ).

Trees were planted in conjunction with a presentation on soil and water conservation in the Rumford Jr.-Sr. High School, Dirigo Middle School, and in the Brownfield Elementary School and elementary schools of the Sacoque Valley School District.

The trees, jack pines and blue spruce, were donated by the state Forestry Department and Western Maine Nurseries, in Fryeburg. Garbage bags for roadside cleanup were donated by the Maine Department of Transportation.

"The youth involved in this work are to be commended for their enthusiasm and the contribution they have made to their school sites and communities," Mr. Chandler said.

NOTICE

Please take notice that Mr. Clifford Akers of Pinedale Industries, Hotel Road, P.O. Box 5, Auburn, Maine 04210 is filing for a Hydropower Project Permit with the Maine Department of Environmental Protection pursuant to the provisions of Title 38, M.R.S.A., Sections 630-636 and P.L. 92-500 to: construct a new 20 kilowatt hydroelectric facility. No dam or impoundment will be constructed; power production will fluctuate with stream flow. A minimum stream flow, determined and monitored by the Maine Inland Fisheries & Wildlife Service, will be preserved at all times. The project will be in and adjacent to Branch Brook located in the Town of Newry.

The application will be filed for public inspection at the Department's Office in Augusta and at the municipal office indicated above on June 10, 1987.

Written comments from an interested person must be sent to the Department of Environmental Protection within 14 days of the filing of the application to receive consideration.

Oxford Pomona meets

Oxford Pomona met with Waterford Grange at North Waterford, June 2, with 40 in attendance at a 6:30 supper served by the host grange. All officers were present except the overseer; Lewis Marcotte filled the chair, Fred Judkins, Agriculture Committee of Florida Grange, was present.

A foodless sale in the month of June. Instead of cooking, money would be accepted by the CWA Committee for their projects. Needlework is due in August. Anna Woodworth reported on doings of the legislature in our state.

The banner for percentage of attendance went to Aziscoos Grange this month.

It was voted to donate $5 to the State Youth Committee; Oxford Hills Project, $10; Howe's Nurse's Scholarship, Educational Aid Activities, the Deaf Activities to State.

A report was given by Shirley Foster who had attended open house at Hinckley where the grange supports a home for poor children in this unit. This was interesting, being first hand.

The program was: welcoming by Hugh Roak; response by Lettie Brooks, followed by memorial services for nine departed members. This was conducted by the chaplain, Marion Bennett, and her helpers in a very able manner. Lewis Woodworth sang "Beyond the Sunset."

"Whispering Hope" was sung by all to close the services.

Dot Canwell sang a Father's Day song that was written by Olive Davis. The

LINWOOD A. EMMONS

Linwood A. Emons, of Norway, died Thursday, June 4, 1987, at the Stephens Memorial Hospital, Norway, where he had been a patient for a week.

He was born at Greenwood, July 4, 1887, the son of Llewellyn B. and Bertha Cummings Emons. He received his education in the Greenwood elementary schools and was a graduate of West Paris High School. He worked as a mechanic for E.L. Tebbets Spool Co., in Locke Mills, and later was a woodman and was employed by Norman Mills and Maurice Benson. Prior to his retirement he was employed by C.B. Cummings, at Norway. He was married to the former Eleanor Vetquasky on Aug. 28, 1937, and lived in Bethel following their marriage. They had made their home in Norway since 1959.

Survivors include his wife, of Norway; two sons, Wayne, of South Paris, and Brian, of Juneau, Alaska; one daughter, Mrs. Christine Deriso, of Rivers, Mass.; and a brother, Richard Emons, of Alton, N.H.

Private inurnment services will be held at a later date at Wayside Cemetery, West Paris.

H. WAYLAND BARROWS

H. Wayland Barrows, of Hutchins Pond Road, Bethel, died Saturday evening, June 6, 1987, at the Maine Medical Center in Portland.

He was born at Westfield, Aug. 18, 1918, the son of Carroll and Dora Day Barrows and attended grade school in Westfield. He later attended Union Springs Academy and Columbia Union College in Washington, D.C. He was a self-employed electrical contractor and while he made his home in southern California he built several churches and schools. He was a member and first elder of the Oxford Seventh-day Adventist Church. An avid photographer, he was a member of various photographic societies and had won many prizes for his work. He was married to Leone Alden, Feb. 14, 1940.

He is survived by his wife of Albany; one son, Bruce W. of North Norway; one daughter, Joyce Jones of Paris Hill; one brother, W. Frank of Grant's Pass, Ore.; and two grandchildren.

Funeral services will be held at two o'clock Saturday afternoon at the Oxford Seventh-day Adventist Church, Fore Street, Oxford. Interment will be at the Hillside Cemetery, South Paris.

MSAD #44

Directors' meeting

The board of directors of SAD #44 met in regular session in the library at Tolstar Regional High School on Monday evening of this week.

Prior to the business session the directors heard a report by Wendy Marceloni, special education consultant, room teacher at Tolstar, and John Zuhdanz from the Northern Oxford Vocational Area, concerning an appropriate program NOVA has for the high and middle school.

Bethel director Al Barth, attending his final meeting as a board member, was presented a plaque in appreciation of three years of service to the district. The directors accepted the resignations of the following members of the district's certified staff: Rayne M. Cole who has been elementary physical education teacher in SAD #44 for the past four years; and Susan D. Wilkins, a sixth grade teacher at the Tolstar Middle School for the past year. Authorization was granted to post vacancies in these positions.

The following were approved as teachers for the 1987 session of the Tolstar Summer School: Kathy Bugbee Barry, Judith Brown, Gail Parent, and Linda Wheeler. Approved as summer school substitutes were: Judy Kersey and Charles Raymond.

Approved as teachers for the special education summer school were: Melanie Ellsworth, Sue Howe, Jolene Shimamura, and Jocelyn Cranston (speech).

The board approved the following dates as teacher workshop days for the 1987-88 school year: Oct. 8 and 9, and March 18.

Workshop days have also been scheduled for Sept. 1 (opening day teacher workshop); and Jan. 22 (multi-district workshop).

Members of the board not present Monday evening: Darlene Hall, Andover; Gail Sysko, Newry; and Debra Poland, Woodstock.

The next regular meeting of the SAD #44 board is scheduled for 7:30 Monday evening, June 22, at the new Woodstock School, Rumford Ave., Bryant Pond.

Vandalism outbreak causes damage in Bethel

A rash of vandalism in the Bethel area over the weekend caused damage from one end of town to the other.

At the Chaboune mill, officials discovered Monday morning that heavy equipment had been damaged. While in town, it and around the Post Office, about 30 car tires were slashed, while car windows and house windows were cracked or broken.

An eye-witness spotted one of the vandals in action, at about 1:30 a.m., and reported it to the police, who arrived shortly thereafter. The investigation is still continuing, according to the authorities.

Chaboune's is offering a $1,000 reward for information leading to the arrest of the vandal or vandals.

Members of the Newry Planning Board, board selectmen, and the code enforcement officer, on Tuesday morning, reached an agreement with MCW Inc. (formerly Chapman and Wheeler) on correction of environmental violations in their logging operations on their lot adjacent to Bear River, Mike Lynch and Nancy Nappa of the planning board, Code Enforcement Officer John Gauthier and Selectmen Steve Wight and Roger Hausman were present to discuss the problems with Bill Myers and Roger Woscar of the logging company.

All parties agreed that violations had been committed, including: cutting in a resource protection area without a permit; disruption of logs which could cause erosion; and that probably too many trees had been taken from the buffer zone near the river. A fine of $100 was levied against MCW Inc., with the stipulation that some back-dragging and seeding would be done by them in the area within the next month.

In other business, the selectmen did work on valuation of some of the new buildings.

Woodstock man named education coordinator of soil and water district

Jim Chandler, of Woodstock, has been named education coordinator of the Oxford County Soil and Water Conservation District. This is a new position, created by a Challenge Grant from the Maine Soil and Water Conservation Commission.

"I am looking forward to working with schools, local governments, and other community groups to strengthen environmental education in Oxford County," Mr. Chandler said. He is forming an advisory board of educators, natural resource professionals and concerned citizens to aid in the development of a coordinated education program.

Mr. Chandler has an M.S.E. from the University of Rochester and is certified to teach in Maine and New York. For the past five years he has been developing science education computer programs. Prior to that he was science department chairman of the Pinchease School, in Poland Springs, and had earlier taught at the Spruce Mountain Environmental Education Center, in Bryant Pond.

The future of Oxford County is heavily dependent upon the wise use of our natural resources," he said.

If you would like more information about the environmental education program, or are interested in serving on the advisory board, contact Mr. Chandler through the Soil and Water Conservation District, in South Paris, or call 743-7018.

Woodstock town manager previews new office

Woodstock Town Manager Kathleen Mersereau recently revealed what the new office in the elementary school annex will be like.

She said one of the two rooms in the building will have an office for the town manager partitioned off. A storage closet will also be built for the safekeeping of records. A counter will be installed for the use of her secretary-clerk. Thus there will be space for serving people who come in for licenses and other routine matters, and there will also be an opportunity for privacy for those who wish to speak to her confidentially.

Mrs. Mersereau also indicated that as far as she knew the town would be getting both rooms in the annex at once. She said she thought the second room would eventually be remodelled for meetings.

She expected work on the office to commence about June 22 and the two rooms to be ready for occupancy July 1.

Town officials continued discussion on changes in the local ordinances on which there will be a hearing June 15, followed by a special town meeting to vote on their acceptance.

Willard Wight reported that perambulation of the Newry-Rumford town line had been completed and he and Richard Brown were presently working on the Andover-Newry line. Mr. Wight expects this to take some time as the line had not been run for approximately 30 years, so in places it is extremely hard to follow.

In other business, the selectmen did work on valuation of some of the new buildings.
